1. ORGANIZATION The Chicago International Children's Film Festival is an annual, competitive film festival presented by Facets Multi-Media, Inc., a non-profit media arts organization dedicated to programming and distributing international film. The Chicago International Children's Film Festival is the largest festival of films for children in North America and is recognized as an Academy-qualifying festival.

2. MISSION It is the mission of the Chicago International Children's Film Festival to set an internationally-recognized standard of excellence in film and television production for children. We strive to support the work of talented and dedicated filmmakers by awarding prizes, by showcasing international films of the highest quality, and by providing a professional forum through which quality children's films may gain increased distribution and access to wider audiences. The Festival is also committed to engaging young viewers with positive media images and using media as a tool for learning.

3. NOTIFICATION OF FESTIVAL STATUS The Festival will inform all entrants no later than August 31, 2013, whether their submissions have been accepted. At that time, the primary contact person for each accepted entry will receive the 2013 Shipment Information Worksheet to be completed and returned. Preview copies and support materials of all entries, accepted or rejected, cannot be returned.

4. ENTRY Submit an entry by sending the following materials to the Festival by May 1 (for early entries) or May 31, 2013:

- Signed and completed 2013 Entry Form (one entry form per film or episode)
- A full-length preview DVD (formatted for multi-zone or Zone 1 North America) of the entry, clearly labeled with title of production. Each submission must contain only one production; putting multiple entries on a single DVD will cause delays and may result in your film being rejected.
- Entry fee in USD. US-affiliated bank checks and international money orders should be made out to Facets Multi-Media and the title of the film/episode(s) should be written on the check. To charge an entry fee to Visa, MasterCard, American Express, or Discover, please include the card number, expiration date, and signature. Entry fees are non-refundable. See Entry Form for details.
- Two high-quality images from the production. For marketing purposes, images MUST be at least 300 dpi. These may be e-mailed to filmreg@facets.org as .jpgs or .tifs.
- Director photo. This may be e-mailed to filmreg@facets.org as .jpgs or .tifs.
- Production information, including cast and credits.
- Director's filmography, including years of production.
- Brief biographies of director(s) and principal actors.

5. ENTRY FEE The entry fee will be waived for submissions produced by children and youth under the age of 18. Please see separate entry form for young filmmakers. For all others, the entry fee is as follows:

For early entries received by May 1, 2013, the standard entry fees apply:

- Short film (under 60 minutes): $40.00 USD
- Feature-length film (60 minutes or longer): $80.00 USD

For late entries received after May 1 but before May 31, 2013, the late entry fees apply:
Short film (under 60 minutes): $60.00 USD
Feature-length film (60 minutes or longer): $100.00 USD

Methods of payment include: US-affiliated bank check, credit card (MasterCard, Visa, Discover, and American Express), or international money order. All checks should be made out to Facets Multi-Media and should include the title of the production(s) being entered. If paying by credit card, please note that the entry fee will appear as a "FMI-Facets Multi-Media, Inc." charge on your credit card bill. The entry fee is non-refundable.

6. ELIGIBLE FILMS

- The Festival accepts both live-action and animated submissions, on film and on DVD.
- Productions must have a copyright date of 2011, 2012 or 2013 to be eligible.
- All entries submitted must be suitable for children ages 14 and under.
- Premieres are given priority.
- All films whose original language is not English must be subtitled or dubbed in English. Dialogue lists or scripts are not acceptable.
- Screening fees will NOT be paid by CICFF for print usage.

Definition of programming categories: (Refer to this when filling out the "production information" portion of the 2013 entry form.)

FEATURES AND SHORTS: Productions of 60 minutes or longer are considered features. Productions of less than 60 minutes are considered shorts.

LIVE-ACTION AND ANIMATED PRODUCTIONS: In the event that a production includes both live-action cinematography and animation, please identify (on the entry form) the category in which it should compete.

TELEVISION EPISODES OR SPECIALS: A submission is considered a television production if its intended distribution is television broadcast or direct-to-video release rather than a theatrical release. Each episode of a television series must be submitted separately. Do not submit episodes and productions that have aired or will have aired on national network or cable television in the United States by the time of the Festival.

DOCUMENTARY PRODUCTIONS: A production is considered a documentary if it takes as its subject actual people, places, and events and presents them in a non-fictional context.

7. SELECTION COMMITTEE A selection committee composed of filmmakers, educators, and children screens entries received by the Festival. The Selection Committee approves films for Festival participation and for competition. The CICFF's Adult, Youth, and Children's Juries then judge competition films.

8. CRITERIA

 Criteria for selection:

- The action of the film should be child-driven and the stories should be culturally authentic, timely, and of universal appeal.
- Films submitted to CICFF should be made for, rather than about, children.
- Film content should be creative, highly original, and demonstrate artistic and technical mastery.
- Content should speak positively to children of diverse backgrounds and cultures and should provide strong role models for both boys and girls.

Criteria for non-acceptance of films into the festival include:

- Excessive or gratuitous violence, nudity, or profanity.
- Content that advocates and supports racial, cultural, religious, or gender bias.

Films may also be disqualified for technical or procedural reasons, including:

- Any submission not subtitled or dubbed into the English language.
- Films that are purely educational or instructional in nature.
- Films that are intended primarily for an adult audience.

9. FESTIVAL FORMAT OF FILMS SELECTED For Festival screening, all films must be 35mm, DCP (Digital Cinema Package), Blu-ray or an exhibition-quality DVD. Do not submit a production if you cannot provide the Festival with one of these three formats. The Festival format that you indicate on the entry form must be the format that you provide for screening. However, to allow for multiple screenings the festival may request you to provide an additional format.

10 SCHOOL SCREENINGS Post-festival school screenings are an especially valued tradition at the CICFF. Consistent with festival policy, screening fees will not be paid by CICFF for print usage for these screenings.

11. PRIZES

Adult Jury Prizes are awarded in these categories:

- Live-action Feature
- Animated Feature
- Live-action Short
- Animated Short
- Documentary
- Live-action Television Episode or Special
- Animated Television Episode or Special

Children's Jury Prizes are awarded in these categories:

- Live-action Feature
- Animated Feature
- Live-action Short
- Animated Short
- Live-action Television Episode or Special
- Animated Television Episode or Special
- Child-produced (directed by children aged 6 to 14)

Youth Jury Prizes are awarded in these categories:

- Youth-produced (directed by youth aged 15 to 18)
- Feature Film

Special Prizes awarded by the CICFF:

- Best of the Fest Prize (selected by audience vote)
- Emerging Director Award
- The Liv Ullmann Peace Prize
- Best Film for Young Children (Ages 2 to 5)

Awards are announced at the conclusion of each Festival. Awards are given in the form of certificates. Please note that awards are given to the director of the film, unless otherwise specified on the entry form.

12. JURIES Awards are determined by several juries, including an Adult Jury, a Youth Jury, and a Children's Jury. The Adult Jury, composed of filmmakers, critics, and educators, is separated into the following sub-juries: Documentary, Animated Shorts, Animated Features, Live-action Features, and Live-action Shorts. Television productions selected for competition will be judged by the Live-action Shorts Adult Jury and the Animated Shorts Adult Jury. The Festival's Children's Jury and the Youth Jury, led separately by a team of media educators, meet separately from the Adult Jury and award their own respective prizes. The Adult, Youth, and Children's Juries meet during the summer preceding the Festival. For special prizes, separate juries determine awards. Prizes may not be awarded in all categories if the juries feel that the entries do not meet the high standards of the Festival.

13. ACADEMY QUALIFICATION

Films that win first prize from the Adult Jury in the category of Live-action Short or Animated Short may become eligible to enter the Academy Awards competition.

14. CORRESPONDENCE

All correspondence to the Festival management, including entry forms and support materials, must be in the English language. We apologize for any inconvenience.

15. TRANSPORTATION OF FILMS SELECTED

The Festival formats of films selected (see Regulation 10) for inclusion must arrive at the Festival offices no later than September 16, 2013. Films are to be sent to the following address: The Chicago International Children's Film Festival, Facets Multi-Media, 1517 W. Fullerton Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60614 USA. All transportation costs of Festival formats to Chicago must be borne by the participant, including charges for customs clearance.

The Festival will pay the cost of shipping all films back to the participant, excluding charges for customs clearance. The Festival will not be responsible for expedited or overnight shipping charges to other organizations. The primary contact person for each film that is accepted into the Festival's program will be required to complete and return the Shipment Information Worksheet upon receipt. This worksheet will provide further details regarding shipping procedures for Festival formats.

16. DEADLINES

May 1, 2013: Early deadline for entry form, support materials, and preview copy for Jury Selection. The early entry discount is 20%.

May 31, 2013: Deadline for entry form, support materials, and preview copy. Materials must be postmarked by this date. The Festival is not obligated to consider any submissions that arrive later than May 31, 2013.

September 16, 2013: Festival format due for all entries selected for the Festival.

17. RULINGS

The Festival Committee and Facets Multi-Media, Inc. Board of Directors reserve the right to rule on cases not covered by these regulations.

18. PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

The Participation Agreement contained on the official Festival Entry Form must be signed, or "checked" if using the online version. Please note that signing or checking the participation agreement is legally binding.
