Dark Matter

Special CineStudy Screenings for High School Students

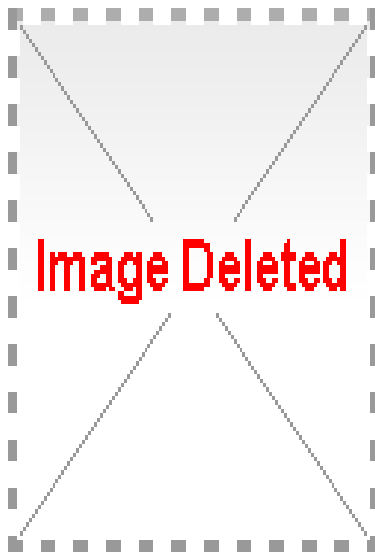

Monday, May 19th - Friday, May 23rd

9:45 am 11am 4pm

What goes on in a young person's mind when they contemplate violence?

How does such an action go from unthinkable to actionable?

What can we do to stop these terrible events?

Inspired by a true story, Dark Matter explores events that lead to a school shooting, raising important questions about how youth respond to the stress of pressure and isolation...questions that young people need a chance to engage directly.

Stars Oscar-winner Meryl Streep and Aidan Quinn.

Winner of the Alfred P. Sloan Award
2007 Sundance Film Festival

This film is rated R for language, some sex and a scene of violence.

$8 per student. Educator curriculum and facilitated discussion are included.

Teachers bringing groups (over 20) are welcome to screen the film in advance.
