

The 28th Chicago International Children's Film Festival October 21 to October 30, 2011

The Chicago International Children's Film Festival at Instituto Cervantes!

The Chicago International Children's Film Festival

Please join us at the Chicago International Children's Film Festival, the largest film festival for children in North America. The Festival takes place October 21st to October 30th with 240 films from over 40 countries. Hailed as "Cannes for Kids," the Festival was the first children's film festival in the world designated as Academy Award qualifying. You are cordially invited to see the best in multicultural films for young audiences – films that will open children's eyes and minds to new worlds, new people, and new ideas!

Screenings on Monday, October 24:

Español Para Todos: Bacalar (Mexico)

99 min - Ages 9-12

Animals and adventure await in southern Mexico! When three wolf cubs are stolen from the Potosi nature reserve, the Bacalar region attracts a nefarious gang of animal traffickers. The smugglers have fooled the authorities, but they didn't plan on ten-year-old friends and animal lovers Santiago and Mariana! With determination, teamwork, and a little help from mystical animal spirits, Santi and Mariana set out to save the cubs and make their home safe for all endangered species. Rawr! (Screened in Spanish)
