The Letter for the King
Netherlands, 2008
107 minutes Ages 11 to 13
Directed by Pieter Verhoeff

Sixteen-year-old squire Tiuri is about to achieve his cherished dream of becoming a knight.

When he discovers a mysterious courier who has been ambused in the woods, he risks his own future as a knight and promises to deliver a letter to the king without fail. The fate of the kingdom now rests on his shoulders. Faced with deceit, trickery, and threats, the young Tiuri must gather the courage and will to carry out the mission. Basked on the book by Tonke Dragt, The Letter for the King is a rich and exhilarating tale of honor, valor, and love.
