

Tales with Tails

Animated Short Film Program

Grades 4-6 (Ages 8-10)

90-minute program includes media education

All world language films will be screened with English subtitles.

Creatures great and small have stories to tell. First, William Blake's famous poem, "Tyger", springs off the page in a powerful, inventive reimagining from Brazil. Then, an oral lesson from the Anasazi teaches us to listen to the Wise Wolf, as we have much to learn from our animal brothers and sisters. Next, a wistful narrator reflects on a whimsical story of friendship in the 2011 Oscar®-winning film adaptation of Shaun Tan's "The Lost Thing". Finally, the all-star British cast is back in the sequel to the beloved "The Gruffalo", where the Gruffalo's daughter seeks to discover if the Big Bad Mouse was just one of Dad's tall tales.

Films from Australia, Brazil, England and the US.
